

IOM input Action group community dimension

| Recommendations/Actionable commitment   | Means of implementation  | Partnerships  |
|---|--|---|
| Promote diaspora investments towards communities structural needs based on various diaspora capacities (human, cultural, social and financial) to foster development and access to services  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• IRIS</li> <li>• Identify communities structural needs through local development plans</li> <li>• Build partnerships with financial institutions in country of origin and country of destination</li> </ul>              | National and local Government, Consular services, diaspora groups, UN development agencies, Civil Society Organizations and private sectors both in country of origin and country of destination |
| Invest in host community capacity, particularly in situations of protracted crisis, through targeted development and stability initiatives and support to expand opportunities to access, as appropriate, livelihood opportunities and labour markets, without discrimination, and in a manner which also supports migrants, returnees and refugees. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• MCOF</li> <li>• MICIC</li> <li>• Identify barriers to community development and access to services and address them through initiatives bringing together host population and new comers to build resilience</li> </ul> | National and local Government, RCPs and GFMD on good practices identification, UN development agencies as well as NGOs present in the field and private sector                                   |
| Promote community-based accommodation for administrative offenses, particularly upon arrival and expulsion, with reporting obligations and case-management to limit enforcement risks. Ensure periodic judicial review of immigration detention, including time limits.  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• through the Country / sub Offices of IOM or any other relevant UN agency covering the related community.</li> </ul>   | Among RCPs and GFMD on good practices identification, as well as civil society, private sector and local institutions to promote integration.  |