

Global compact for safe, orderly and regular migration

Preliminary Information

Preparatory Meeting to take stock Puerto Vallarta, Mexico 4 to 6 December 2017

1. Introduction

In accordance with the resolution on the modalities for the intergovernmental negotiations of the global compact for safe, orderly and regular migration (A/RES/71/280), adopted 6 April 2017, the preparatory process leading to the adoption of the global compact includes three phases: (I) consultations (April to November 2017), (II) stocktaking (November 2017 to January 2018) and (III) intergovernmental negotiations (February to July 2018). This note provides an overview of the preparatory meeting taking place in phase II.

2. Context

In line with paragraph 23 of resolution 71/280, the preparatory meeting shall be held in Mexico in early December 2017 for a duration of three days and shall take stock of the inputs received, as outlined in paragraphs 15 and 22. The preparatory meeting will be co-chaired by the co-facilitators. Upon decision of the Government of Mexico, which has offered to host and cover the costs of the preparatory meeting, it will be held in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico from 4 to 6 December 2017.

3. Objectives

During this preparatory meeting, participants will:

- (a) Take stock of inputs received during the thematic and regional consultations in phase I;
- (b) Present inputs from relevant processes outlined in paragraph 22 that have not been presented in the informal thematic sessions;
- (c) Engage in discussions and analyse the inputs received as they relate to facilitating safe, orderly and regular migration;
- (d) Discuss potential means of implementation, as well as follow-up and review mechanisms for a global compact.

4. Outcome

According to paragraph 25, the co-facilitators as co-chairs of the preparatory meeting will prepare a chair's summary of the meeting, which will inform the basis of the zero draft of the global compact.

5. Venue

Puerto Vallarta International Convention Center<sup>1</sup> (<http://cicpuertovallarta.com/>)
Av. Paseo de las Flores N. 505 Col. Villa las Flores,
Puerto Vallarta, Jalisco, México

<sup>1</sup> Subject to UN approval and finalization of host country agreement.

6. Registration and participation

As part of the preparatory process for the global compact, the preparatory meeting will be open to participation by all States Members of the United Nations and members of specialized agencies that have observer status with the General Assembly.<sup>2</sup>

Delegations will be limited to four participants. The participation of the Head of Delegation is encouraged to be at Ambassadorial level (1 + 3). It is suggested that Member States envisage a delegation size of three to four participants, as three simultaneous segments will take place during the second day.

In addition, the General Assembly has invited intergovernmental organizations and other entities having received a standing invitation to participate as observers in the work of the General Assembly and organizations and bodies of the United Nations as well as registered national human rights institutions compliant with the Paris Principles. Also invited are registered non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council and accredited representatives of relevant non-governmental organizations, civil society organizations, academic institutions, the private sector, diaspora communities and migrant organizations.<sup>3</sup>

Additional information on the registration process for Member States and other stakeholders will be provided in due course.

7. Format

A preliminary proposed agenda is attached. The preparatory meeting will be held over a period of three full days, from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm and from 3:00 pm to 6:00 pm. It shall consist of different formats in order to ensure open, transparent and inclusive discussions and to facilitate a fruitful outcome of the preparatory meeting. The first and third day will be held in plenary, while the second day will mainly be structured in parallel breakout segments in different rooms. During plenary segments interpretation will be available in all the official United Nations languages.

The first day will look back on the discussions in phase I of the preparatory process and provide a platform to stimulate the discussion with innovative initiatives, ideas, visions and concrete proposals. Discussion in three parallel breakout segments on the second day will serve to collect and discuss possible actionable commitments and means of implementation to be reflected in the global compact, by building on the outcomes of phase I. The third day aims to bring together the discussions from the previous two days and allows reflections on the zero draft of the global compact.

Participants are invited to actively engage in a dialogue and to provide concrete contributions to the discussions by reacting to the interventions made by panelists, presenters or previous speakers. Interventions should be limited to two minutes in plenary in order to ensure maximum participation. To allow participants enough time for the preparation of the work in the action groups on the second day, concrete questions will be made available ahead of the preparatory meeting.

The proposed structure and provisional agenda present a general draft and might be subject to further changes. A final programme will be sent in November 2017.

8. Next steps

A detailed concept and logistics note will be circulated in the month of October. An informal briefing on the stocktaking meeting will also be convened and announced in the UN Journal.
