

Screening of “No Monsters in Berlin”

19 June 2017 at 1:30 p.m.
Room XIV (Cinema Room)

Join film producer and lead actress Mala Ghedia for the screening of her film “No Monsters in Berlin”, winner of the 2017 Diversity in Cannes Short Films Showcase. Presented on the sidelines of the thematic session on facilitating safe, orderly and regular migration taking place at the Palais des Nations on 19/20 June, and ahead of World Refugee Day (20 June), this 15-minute film tells the story of an Indian immigrant running from her past who forms a bond with a Syrian refugee in the city of new beginnings. Created in collaboration with Syrian refugees as members of the cast, crew and creative team. More information here

Louise Arbour, the United Nations Secretary-General’s Special Representative for International Migrations, will make introductory remarks before the start of the film. (TBD)

After the film, a discussion on the theme of integration will follow with actress Mala Ghedia, xx from the UN Refugee Agency and xx from the International Organization for Migration.

Light refreshments will be served from 1 p.m. in front of Room XIV

Seating is limited and available on a first come, first served basis.

